

TWHBEA PARTNERS WITH NATIONAL PARK SERVICE For National Youth Equine Trails Day

WHO? All Equine Enthusiasts

WHAT? A day where youth across the nation are educated about the importance of preserving our nation's equine accessible trails, maintenance and preservation.

WHEN? June 7, 2008

WHERE? There are efforts underway to locate and plan Trails Day activities in every state. If you are interested in participating, please contact TWHBEA for your state information. For more information please visit www.twhbea.com/EquineTrailsInitiative.htm

WHY? From the cowboys to present day, our nation's equine trails are our heritage. We must preserve them for the future generations. National Youth Equine Trails Day is an opportunity to teach today's youth about the importance of preserving our trails for equine use. Let's take a step toward the future!
